Overview

This document is an Annexure as defined in the "Master Agreement in respect of the Netcash Account Service Terms" (the "Master Agreement") and deals specifically with the debit orders service terms.

The debit orders can be set up to operate on a normal banking account, or on a credit card account. When the Client agrees to this Annexure, Netcash provides the Client with the service of obtaining funds from the Client's Customers bank or credit card account on a recurring basis for the services or goods that the Client offers to its Customers. The way in which Netcash does this is by the Client instructing Netcash to collect via the Netcash System, by submitting its collection file. Netcash then collects the debt in terms of that instruction and make the funds collected (subject to certain agreed retentions for a limited period) available to the Client on the Netcash System under the Clients dedicated account number under "Available Balance", which the Client will then transfer to its transactional bank account.

(the services described in the immediately preceding paragraph are hereinafter referred to as the "Debit Orders Services").

The Minimum Requirements to Use the Debit Order Services, which is attached hereto as Appendix A and can be found on the Client's online profile, refers to the requirements for a valid Debit Order Mandate. A valid Debit Order Mandate must be displayed on a client company letterhead; must contain the abbreviated name reflecting the trading name of the Client that will appear on the bank statement of the account holder being debited and must be retained for a period of 7 (seven) years after the last debit order transaction.

This Annexure is intended to be used for collections authorised by Debit Order Mandates and/or DebiCheck Services.

The Client is hereby made aware that this Annexure should be read in conjunction with the Master Agreement, which terms and conditions are incorporated in this Annexure. Should the Client require, Netcash will gladly answer any questions or clarify any uncertainty regarding these terms and conditions.

With a constantly changing regulatory environment as well as adjusted inflation, Netcash will update its fees from time to time. Netcash will only do so in accordance with the terms agreed under the Master Agreement.

2 Introduction and Recordal

- 2.1 Netcash owns the Netcash System which it uses to provide Debit Order Services to Clients, as more fully set out in this Annexure.
- 2.2 The Client wishes to enter into an agreement whereby it will be able to have access to the Netcash System in order to use the Debit Order Services, subject to the terms and conditions of this Annexure and the Master Agreement.
- 2.3 This document deals with the Debit Order Mandates which (i) are authorised by the Client's Customers, and (ii) are levied against the Payer's banking accounts, (the "Transaction(s)"). Unless otherwise indicated all clauses within this Annexure apply to debit orders which are levied against the Payer's bank account, as well as debit orders against Cards.

3 Commencement and Duration

This Annexure and access to the Netcash System for the purpose of using the Debit Order Services shall commence on the Date of Acceptance of this Annexure and shall endure indefinitely subject to the termination clauses within the Master Agreement, as modified hereby.

4 Use of the Debit Order Services

4.1 On instruction by the Client, in the form agreed between the Client and Netcash (the "Instruction"), Netcash will process the Transaction provided the Netcash System allows for the Instruction to be processed.

4.2 The Client shall ensure that all Instructions are sent to Netcash timeously according to the specific processing dates, times and methods as advised by Netcash from time to time.

4.3 Netcash will only accept an Instruction/s if the Instruction includes all data required by Netcash (in the agreed form) to process the Transaction/s and the Client hereby undertakes to provide complete and accurate Instructions to Netcash.

4.4 Any Instructions provided through the use of the Access Codes (as defined in the Master Agreement) by a User shall be deemed to have been authorised by the Client, and Netcash shall be entitled to rely on and act upon the Instructions as being genuine Instructions and not tainted by fraud or any other illegal activity unless the Client informs Netcash of the use of its Access Codes for any unauthorized activity and/or by an unauthorised person, and Netcash will then only be required to stop or reverse the Instruction or Transaction in the event that it has the necessary time to do so and it is technically and legally feasible to do so.

4.5 In the event that a Transaction was processed, and monies were incorrectly deducted from a Client's Customer's (Payer) bank account due to an error in the Instruction from the Client (for whatever reason including fraud and negligence) or in the event that the Payer disputes a Transaction, Netcash will be entitled to reverse the transaction if it is legally and technically feasible to do so, and to charge the Client the applicable fee for this action.

4.6 In the event that it is not possible to reverse the Transaction as explained in clause 4.4 and 4.5 above, Netcash shall be entitled to deduct the necessary monies (in addition to any other fee as set out hereunder) from the Client's account in order to repay the Payer.

4.7 The Client shall ensure that it complies with the minimum requirements as set out in Appendix A, which appendix is incorporated into these terms of service.

5 Use of the DebiCheck Services

5.1 DebiCheck Services are similar to that of the Debit Order Services as set out in clause 4 above, with the addition of the DebiCheck debit order information that is confirmed by the Payer / Account holder before the first collection.

5.2 In the event that there are changes to critical information such as the payment date and/or the amount to be collected, there will be a need to reconfirm information with the Payer / Account holder.

5.3 EFT debit orders do not need to be confirmed by the Payer / Account holder as this debit order will be deducted from the Payer's bank account on the assumption by the bank that a valid mandate exists with the Client collecting the debit order. A Client may be called upon at any time by Netcash to produce a valid mandate, failing which the Client's account with Netcash may be suspended.

6 Fees and Payment

6.1 In return for the Debit Order Services, Netcash will be entitled to deduct the agreed Netcash Fees as set out in the Master Agreement.

6.2 While Netcash shall endeavour to update its fees annually in July of each successive year, Netcash may be obliged to update its fees at some other time due to changes in legislation or by third party providers. In the event that Netcash changes the Netcash Fees it shall provide the Client with 30 (thirty) calendar days' notice thereof and the Client shall be entitled to cancel this Agreement, without penalty of any kind whatsoever, either within the 30 (thirty) calendar day notice period given by Netcash or at any stage thereafter, if the Client objects to the increase in the Netcash Fees.

6.3 In addition to the Netcash Fees, Netcash shall be entitled to deduct the following from the Available Balance:

6.3.1 all tariffs and fees as levied by means of law or as levied by other banking or other institution registered in terms of the National Payment System Act No. 78 of 1998 or any other banking institution which is entitled to levy a fee or tariff on the Transaction;

6.3.2 interest at the rate of Prime plus 2% (two per centum) that is levied by Netcash on any unpaid amounts owing to Netcash by the Client and in respect of which there are insufficient amounts in the Retentions and/or the Client's Netcash Account;

6.3.3 any unpaid or unsuccessful or disputed collections which are returned by the Payer's bank; and

6.3.4 any other monies that Netcash was required to pay on the Client's behalf to process any Transaction.

6.4 If Netcash pays more monies to the Client than the Client was entitled to recover or under-recovers any fees, charges, or interest as set out above, Netcash shall be entitled to deduct the amount of such overpayment, fees, charges, and/or interest by means of set-off from the Available balance applicable to the next Transaction/s that Netcash processes on behalf of the Client. If Netcash refunds any overpayment as set out in this clause it shall provide the Client with the full accounting detailing the way in which the set-off was calculated.

6.5 In the alternative to clause 6.4 above Netcash may, at its sole discretion, elect to recover the overpayment, fees, charges, and/or interest from the Client directly and not by means of set-off and the Client hereby authorizes Netcash to make the necessary payment from the Client Bank Account.

7 Undertakings by Client

7.1 The Client undertakes to Netcash that:

7.1.1 It shall ensure that it complies with the minimum requirements to use the Debit Order Services as set out in Appendix A and which may also be communicated by Netcash to the Client from time to time;

7.4.1 Comply with all applicable laws and regulations including directives issued by the South African Reserve Bank ("SARB"), National Payment System Department ("NPSD") and/or the Payment Association of South Africa ("PASA").

7.4.2 Remain registered as a compliant Client on its Netcash profile.

7.4.3 Comply with the standards, terms and conditions as set out in this Service Terms and Terms of Use.

7.4.4 Have an Abbreviated Short Name for each account that it processes on behalf of.

7.4.5 Stop transactions to a Payer immediately on instruction received from Netcash.

7.4.6 Not switch between Payment Systems in a Payment Cycle.

7.4.7 Not switch between Payment System transaction types in order to circumvent any obligations placed on Clients utilizing any particular Payment System. For instance, where a Client is using the EFT Debit Payment System, the Client may not switch between EFT Debit and another Payment System transaction type, for instance DebiCheck, to circumvent any obligation placed on the Client utilising the EFT Debit Payment System. Where the Client does switch Payment Instructions between Payment Systems in different and separate Payment Cycles, the Client must ensure prior to presentment that the Mandate in terms of which the Payment Instruction will be presented meets the minimum requirements for the applicable Payment System.

8 No-fault Termination

8.1 Both Parties may terminate this Annexure on 30 (thirty) days' notice. For the sake of clarity, it is recorded that the termination of this Annexure will only terminate the Debit Order Services and the remaining Netcash Services for which the Client has signed the necessary annexures and/or agreement/s will be unaffected by the termination of this Annexure.

9 Other Warranties
